

Natasha's Biography

Natasha Davis-Bowen, like many of us traveled through a life where there were peaks and valleys. At times, she felt unaccomplished, unequipped, confused and incomplete. As she went through her journey in life, she found a place where life is better, happiness is present, joy is around and peace is inevitable. She turned her life completely over to God and is a sold-out Christian for Jesus Christ.

At the young age of 9 yrs old she knew she wanted to be a nurse and at 23 years old she obtained her Degree in Bachelors of Science in Nursing and practiced as an Emergency Room and Trauma Registered Nurse as of May 2002. She developed her passion for educating others and found herself training medical physicians and other medical professionals. Later on, she entered into the arena of travel nursing and brought her talents and expertise to several states.

Along the age of 16 yrs old her father Michael Davis Sr. saw her innate qualities of entrepreneurship out of her 8 other siblings. He began training her in business and recruited her as a business partner within his company, Kemstock Transportation in 1998. She facilitates the role as the Operations & Advisory Board Director.

As she continued to work in the medical field Natasha decided to challenge her entrepreneurial abilities and started her first home based company called Soothing Aromas in 2007. This custom gift basket and soy candle business grew by leaps and bounds. Once proven that she had what it took to be her own business woman she journeyed to her real passion in business.

Natasha Davis-Bowen merged her deep passion to educate others, her dedication to constant self-improvement, her challenging life experiences and her God given ability to empower others and gave life to her company Visionary People, LLC in Mid 2007. This empowerment company specializes in Strategy & Execution that is dedicated to transforming your vision into reality. In March 2009 she became a first time author and published the profound and inspiring book "Get Grounded; Stay Grounded". In her book she teaches how to find your destiny and your purpose; she then teaches you how to get to the point where you know your destiny and your purpose. Her second book is in the making and is due to be published in the winter of 2010. In 2010, Natasha began her contributing writers endeavor for magazines and has constructed several empowering audio tools to date and has no intention of slowing down.

In the early part of 2009, Natasha implemented the “Target 1000 Campaign” through Visionary People. This is her continuous efforts of making sure those in need and those in the community are never forgotten. Natasha actively volunteers her time, talents & services to nonprofit organizations and high schools. Her goal is to reach out and help 1000 people a year achieve their point of success and their hearts desire. In April of 2009 she was inducted into the Cambridge Who’s Who Honorary Club for her accomplishments and determinations as a young successful entrepreneur. Natasha attributes all of her past, present and future achievements to her heavenly Father – God.

In November of 2009 she emerged as the radio host of her Internet based Talk Show “Manifested Vision”; she very quickly earned the title “The Chief Visionary”. It’s her determination to bring attention to those that have casted vision and took their success. Shortly after, she started her own Blog titled “Taking Success By Force”.

In March 2010 Natasha took Visionary People to the next level by acquiring its first office space and by offering online training seminars. Visionary People has sparked the interests of International organizations and is coordinating its first international conference tour for mid 2011 where her signature speech titled “Remove the Weakest Link” will be delivered.

Natasha is happily married to her man of God Marco Bowen since 2006. They reside in Atlanta Georgia and are proud faithful and active members of Voices of Faith Ministries under the leadership of Bishop Gary Hawkins. She is a strong believer of taking control of your life, going after your goals and achieving excellence according to the will of God. She has taken platforms as a motivational and empowerment speaker and trainer for diverse populations and has discovered her purpose is to Encourage, Enlighten and Empower. During her time on this earth she desires to be a blessing to other people.
